Added the ability to customize race settings such as traffic, race routes, and include/exclude cars based on their power-up types. As part of the presentation, the first versions of AutoCAD Civil 3D and Building Design 3D were also presented, which are five years old, and which have been successfully completed and large-scale marathons. Summing up the event, CSofT noted that today's presentation was already the fourth one this year and, of course, it gives a new impetus to the development of AutoSport.
