Sir's Prizes is a free online quiz game. The primary goal of Sir's Prizes is to help players see if they are "really" smart. This is not a spelling game. Ticket Information Event Details With only a few weeks to go until the big day, the date is upon us! New Zealand's first date-based, short story competition has arrived and we want YOU to be part of it. The competition is open to any level of writer, but we have some additional restrictions due to the nature of the event; -You must be a New Zealand resident or entrant in one of NZ's Best Short Story competitions between 21 December 2015 to 21 November 2016. -You must submit your full short story via our online submission process by 18 January 2016. -Your story must be between 500 and 2,500 words in length. (No less than 1,000 words or more than 5,000 words.) -If your story is over 2,500 words and you are an entrant in the WA or NZ Best Short Story competition, your story must be published or be otherwise generally available in the public domain. (If this is the case, your story needs to be past its premier publication date.) -Submit only one short story – if you have more than one, only the first one will be considered. -Flesh out your story a bit in your submission. Even 500 words will make a difference in the quality of your work. This competition is open to writers of all ages and from all disciplines. Please let us know if you have any restrictions or queries in regards to this competition. All entrants are automatically entered into the prize draw. The online prize draw starts on the night of the award ceremony and continues until 11:59 pm on Wednesday 19 January 2016. Prize The first prize in this competition is $2,000 to be shared between the 3 winning stories. Winners will be announced on Wednesday 19 January 2016. The shortlisted authors will be notified by email and contacted by a chosen blind judge (selected by the organisers) in late January (more information on the judge selection
