Solzon Noi. ТАБЬРОСТІЯ. Концертов Бабблoва (1991-2001).Missouri Democrat Chris Koster, a former two-term attorney general who is also a Democrat running for lieutenant governor, sent a letter to U.S. Attorney General Jeff Sessions on Wednesday asking him to hold U.S. Attorney General Loretta Lynch to the same standards as herself and her predecessor. "My office has a responsibility to see that the law is faithfully executed. That means we must apply the same standard to all of our decisions, equally to all individuals and entities, and hold ourselves to the same, high standard that we expect from others," Koster wrote. "This means holding the President of the United States to a higher standard than a private citizen. It means holding the Attorney General to a higher standard than a private citizen. It means holding our own Justice Department staff to a higher standard than a private citizen. It means asking whether the standard of conduct we hold ourselves to is the standard we would want for ourselves, our family, and our friends." Koster's letter comes after Lynch announced that she was holding up implementation of President Donald Trump's travel ban so that the Department of Justice could review legal standing. Koster said that such a review could leave out aspects of
