Whether you're hosting a swanky soiree or just a get-together with friends, wine will always be an essential part of the festivities. In this post, we're listing Brussels' best sparkling wines to bring you along for the ride. A close inspection of the list makes it very clear: each wine is excellent in its own right, but perfect together make for a formidable lineup. Des Couverts Brut The champagne you'd imagine in a bubble bath, Des Couverts Brut is smooth and feminine. If you're not sold yet, try it with a wedge of lemon and a single cucumber slice. This, ladies and gentlemen, is a champagne that wins on all levels. Château de la Maridorf It might seem that Château de la Maridorf is a brand with no wine for you. That's not true! Château de la Maridorf's Brut is from the same vineyards that the company's elder sibling Château de la Maridorf is aged in. This is an excellent example of how quality meets impeccable consistency. Vieux Millésime This is truly a beautiful bottle of bubbly. It's the kind of bottle you pick up from the counter and say "I need that" without any idea of what you're going to drink it with. It's great with a single peppercorn, it's amazing with a grilled steak, it's divine with dessert and it's wonderful on it's own. Cartier Brut Cartier is more than a sparkling wine – it's a lifestyle. Cartier is a brand that can go with anything and everything, and the Brut is a high quality, rich and sweet sparkling wine. It
