Animated TextsUS funds investigations of Colombian actors: An airport settlement A US federal court has ordered Colombia to pay $5 million to the estate of a Colombian actor who was assassinated by the Medellin cartel in 1989, including $1 million to the family of a Colombian actor and $3 million in punitive damages. This is the first resolution of a US federal court order since the actor, Eliseo Alfonso Moreno, was killed, according to a statement from his wife and lawyers. His was the first case of US federal court related to a Colombian actor being murdered. The legal battle began after Morea's family attempted to recover the money after the actor's death, his wife said in a statement to local media. Colombia agreed to pay $2 million in compensation to the family, but went to court in a bid to avoid paying the remainder. Eliseo Alfonso Moreno, 36, was murdered in 1989, along with 19 other people. After the money was handed over, the federal court ruled that the case did not fall under its jurisdiction and that the family could sue Colombia directly. Morena's wife, Maria Velazquez, said in her statement that the ruling on Tuesday by the US Federal Court of the District of Columbia was
