The Magpies were fined £2.5million for failing to ensure that the home dressing room was fit for the game on January 1. The fixture against Liverpool, coming days after Newcastle had been beaten at Tottenham Hotspur, led to a mass brawl in the area where the home supporters were standing. With the club initially appealing the fine, it was then agreed that the owners would also pay £500,000 for the Magpies to play the big three - Chelsea, Manchester United and Arsenal - over the coming weeks. (Image: James Williamson - AMA/Getty) Now Ashley has handed over the first instalment of the fine to the Football League. The League have demanded that Ashley coughs up the initial instalment of the £2.5million fine by
