▼82 reviews "I can't put it into words, but I really enjoyed the whole world of this game, as well as the way that you get to create your own character." - Review: The Sonic Retro ▼47 reviews "The PGM site is extremely positive for a game that they didn't write, but are simply reviewing. The PGM staff are extremely competent and their experience shows through. They're clearly able to communicate their thoughts simply, as well as coming to a conclusion based on their own evaluation of the game, so I didn't have to worry too much on technicalities." - Review: PGM, The Sonic Retro ▼22 reviews "RPGs are my favorite genre but I didn't pick up this game out of any urge to play an RPG. Rather, I picked it up at the suggestion of a friend and ended up loving it." - Review: AusGamers, The Sonic Retro ▼25 reviews "The game runs extremely well without lag, and the character models and sound effects are better than average." - Review: Daedalic Entertainment, The Sonic Retro ▼21 reviews "I haven't had much time to play Elden Ring, but I'm extremely interested in it. It looks like an interesting mixture of epic fantasy and survival action RPG." - Review: GameSpot, The Sonic Retro ▼24 reviews "The storyline is truly epic in scope, and it appears to be quite a long story. I was quite impressed with the character design and premise of the game in general. I'll definitely be keeping an eye on future installments." - Review: PCGamesN, The Sonic Retro ▼16 reviews "I enjoy battles where my base stats are significant in determining my success. The combat system in Elden Ring is very well designed for single player and multiplayer. The presentation is top-notch." - Review: Eurogamer, The Sonic Retro ▼24 reviews "It's one of the few games of the past few years that did not disappoint. Although it's a new IP, Elden Ring is a classic fantasy RPG that takes care to make its mark on its bff6bb2d33
