※ New Fantasy Action RPG is a game developed and published by Phantasy Star Online 2 and developed by the Phantasy Star Online 2 Team. ※ This review is only for New Fantasy Action RPG. ※ This review is for Phantasy Star Online 2 version 2.1.0. IMPLEMENTATION EXCELLENCE 1. Character-themed Underwear that does not allow “fit in” 2. Stamina bar whose level increases not only when you attack enemies, but also when you move 3. Battle that expresses the way you want to play. 4. A wide variety of job classes that allows you to choose your own path 5. Supports a variety of unique characters New Fantasy Action RPG offers these kinds of unique features as opposed to Phantasy Star Online 2. TENNESSEE WILDS AND ZORRO The game's world is divided into “Tennessee Wards” and “Zorro Areas.” In Tennessee Wards, you can freely move and discover a diverse world. However, you cannot move between Tennessee Wards unless you have a teleportation stone. You can acquire them through fighting with enemies. Alternatively, you can purchase them directly from the shop in Zorro Areas. Zorro Areas are large maps in the game that are accessed through characters' skills. Within the maps, you can freely walk around and discover a variety of sites. When you visit these sites, you will be able to perform actions or acquire items as long as you select an “action category” from among various types of quests. If you beat the quests, you can obtain items or money, etc. as a reward. By making it so that you can freely move from Tennessee Wards to Zorro Areas, the game stresses the sense of exploration, while also letting you effortlessly fight with monsters. Players who are familiar with Phantasy Star Online 2 will recognize the “Zorro Areas” as “action battle maps”. New Fantasy Action RPG presents these areas in a more realistic setting by making them more like “open world maps”. In this game, Zorro Areas are in a large map that is divided into “urban areas,” “forest areas,” “mountain areas,” “waterside areas,” and “swamp areas.♣ bf6bb2d3d3
