I have tried all the possible methods to download op tandon chemistry pdf - physical, organic and inorganic chemistry but it is not possible for me to download this PDF file. When I open it all the things will be shown on the screen but when I try to save it I am getting the following error message - "the file you are trying to download is already open in another program. Please close that program and try again". So I could not download it. A: This might help Open your browser and type this URL in the URL bar Click on the DOWNLOAD button Browse to the location of the file you want to download Click OK. Q: Can I inject Angular Components into CDK Grid without wrapping it? I would like to keep the layout and behavior of an existing Angular 7 component - which uses Angular components - but I do not want the whole component to be wrapped by the CDK Grid. Can I keep the existing template and inject a new component without having to rewrite all logic? A: You should be able to do that. Set the GridOptions's columnDef to have a 'componentSelector': import { GridModule } from '@angular/cdk/grid'; import { Component } from '@angular/core'; @Component({ selector: 'demo-grid-column', template: ` content ` }) export class DemoGridColumnComponent { } @NgModule({ imports: [GridModule,] }) export class AppModule { } See also the cdk docs on injectable components. A: Yes you can, inject it in the constructor of the GridComponent like this: export class GridComponent { @ViewChild('grid', {read: ElementRef}) gridElement; @HostBinding('class.cdk-grid') cdkClasses: boolean; constructor(private elementRef: ElementRef, public gridModule: NgModule) { this.0cc13bf012
