Late Monday evening, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) announced that it would begin accepting applications for the EB-5 Regional Center Program and for the USCIS Innovative Start-Up Visa, a program designed to attract entrepreneurs from certain targeted countries and regions into the United States. The two new types of visas join the existing "Tier 1" EB-5 visa, which represents the most visible and the most commonly used program to attract foreign investment to the United States. Under the program, certain investors and foreign nationals apply to the USCIS for what are commonly known as EB-5 visas for themselves or their principal investors. Applicants need to invest at least $500,000 in the U. 6d1f23a050
